

Volunteer role description

Role title	Litter Picking Warden
Purpose of your role	To regularly check the specified site for litter on an agreed site route.
Type of work you will be involved with:	Litter picking: Picking up any litter along the inspection route using supplied litter picking equipment, and controlled disposal
Skills & abilities you will be using in your role	Sufficient mobility and fitness to be able to walk around the site Good communication skills and friendly manner.
Training provision from NAT	Supply of standard Volunteer Handbook and relevant policies Training session on site including route walk-through, risk assessment and emergency procedures.
Times/days we would like you to be available	No fixed date Weekly inspections or more frequently preferred but can be agreed individually
You will be based at	[Enter name of site]
Benefits to you	Experience of carrying out site checks and keeping to a routine. Regular exercise Travel expenses [currently 30p a mile] A chance to learn more about your specific site and support its conservation
Main contact	Caroline Davison, Norfolk Archaeological Trust carolinedavison@norfarchtrust.org.uk Tel: 01603 462987