

THE NORFOLK
ARCHAEOLOGICAL TRUST

Role title	Guide
Purpose of your role	To provide guided walks around a particular Trust site to groups of visitors on regular pre-arranged days, and at special events.
Type of work you will be involved with:	Contact with visitors - meeting & greeting visitors as they arrive at the site, leading visitor groups by foot around a pre-set tour of the site, informing groups of visitors about the archaeology, history, wildlife and people associated with the site in an engaging and friendly way.
Skills & abilities you will be using in your role	Learning and retaining facts & information about the site Sufficient mobility to walk around the site if leading full site tours Friendly, patient manner and good communication skills Reliable and self-motivated
Training provision from NAT	Training provided either through funded projects; or individually working with Trust staff and existing volunteer teams as mentors.
Times/days we would like you to be available	Pre-set regular programme of tours to be arranged in liaison with volunteer guide team.
You will be based at	Currently three sites support volunteer guided tours: Burgh Castle Roman Fort; Caistor Roman Town and St Benet's Abbey
Benefits to you	Chance to learn more about Trust sites and support their conservation Travel expenses Work experience of working with public
Main contact	Caroline Davison (Director) info@norfarchtrust.org.uk Tel: 01603 462987