

School Guide

Burgh Castle Fort

The role

We are looking for new volunteers to join our friendly school guide team. You will meet and greet schools on their arrival and take them around the site, learning and leading on a variety of activities to ensure the ultimate flexibility within the team and for the school. You will also on occasion go into schools to deliver activities.

What are we looking for?

- Experience working with children
- A people person, someone who enjoys chatting with others and has good communication skills
- No previous knowledge of the site is needed, just a willingness to learn
- Good mobility to get around this rural site
- Well organised, self motivated and have good time management skills
- Able to attend school visits from May – July and September – October

What's in it for you?

- Full training and induction
- The chance to learn more about your local history and engage the younger generation in it
- The opportunity to meet new people
- Sharing your experience and skills with a local charity to help them grow; being their advocate
- Supporting the work of the wider Norfolk Archaeological Trust, a local heritage charity

The location

Burgh Castle Fort, Butt Lane, Burgh Castle, Great Yarmouth, Norfolk, NR31 9QB
