

Volunteer role description

Role title	Visitor survey volunteer
Purpose of your role	To carry out regular surveys of visitors to the site using a standard questionnaire
Type of work you will be involved with:	Contact with visitors: approaching visitors at the site and asking them to answer questions about their visit from a standard sheet, recording their answers, collecting and storing data in an agreed format.
Skills & abilities you will be using in your role	Friendly, patient manner and good communication skills. Ability to approach strangers and request their participation in the survey. Reliable and self-motivated. Ability to record information accurately.
Training provision from NAT	Supply of standard Volunteer Handbook and relevant policies, and training notes.
Times/days we would like you to be available	Pre-set regular visits to be arranged in liaison with volunteer
You will be based at	[Enter name of site]
Benefits to you	Chance to learn more about your specific site and support its conservation Travel expenses (up-to-date info to be supplied) Experience of working with public
Main contact	Caroline Davison, Norfolk Archaeological Trust carolinedavison@norfarchtrust.org.uk Tel: 01603 462987